This scavenger hunt is designed to encourage people to tour the Pauli Murray murals in Durham, research and celebrate Pauli Murray’s life, work and words and discuss how she continues to influence and inspire us today. Helpful resources to use with this sheet are the Face up: Telling stories of community life mural tour brochure and Meet Pauli Murray timeline. These resources and other information about Pauli Murray and the Pauli Murray Project are at: http://paulimurrayproject.org/.

1. Pauli Murray was born on ____________________________ (month, day and year) and moved to Durham in ____________ (year).

2. Complete the quote: “It had taken me almost a lifetime to discover that true emancipation lies in ______________________________, in deriving strength from ______________________________, in facing up to ______________________________ of my ancestors.”*

   What does this quote mean to you?
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________

3. Pauli Murray graduated from ____________________________ High School in __________________ (year).

4. Complete the quote: “True Community is based upon ______________________________, ______________________________, and ______________________________. It affirms the richness of ______________________________ as well as the common human ties that bind us together.”

   What do you consider your true community and why?
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________
   _____________________________________________________________

   More ➔
5. Pauli Murray had a lasting friendship with First Lady ________________________________.

6. Pauli Murray’s book about her family history that was first published in 1956 is called
_____________________________________________________________________________________.

   Why do you think Pauli Murray gave her book this title?
_____________________________________________________________________________________.

   In whose proud shoes do you stand? _____________________________________________________

   What would you call a book about your family history? _________________________________

   Why? __________________________________________________________________________________

   ____________________________________________________________

7. Pauli Murray died on ________________________________ (month, day and year).

8. Reverend Dr. Pauli Murray was declared a saint in ______________________ (year).

9. Which mural do you find the most moving and why?
_____________________________________________________________________________________

   ____________________________________________________________

   ____________________________________________________________

10. What most inspires you about Pauli Murray?

    __________________________________________________________________________________

   ____________________________________________________________

   ____________________________________________________________

* From Roots and Soul mural, 1101 W. Chapel Hills St., Durham, NC 27701.

 From True Community mural, 313 Foster St., Durham, NC 27701.

Produced by Global Citizen, LLC for the Pauli Murray Project